POPCORN

THE MOVIE GUIDE

Written by @enikőjancsek

This December it's all about entertainment. In our movie guide this month you will find a wonderfully sweet family movie, a dazzling musical, an acapella movie, of course including the year's biggest film event: the annual Star Wars movie. Go check them out in between gift hunting, just don't forget the popcorn! :)

12/14: Star Wars: The Last Jedi

The second film of the new Star Wars trilogy, Episode VIII, comes with the raw, untamed power of Rey while receiving her training from Luke Skywalker himself. We hope to receive some answers to our gazillion questions, but I am afraid that we will be left with more questions than answers by the end of the film. We see actors returning to the movie such as Daisy Ridley, John Boyega, Oscar Isaac, Mark Hamill and of course, sadly, the final role of Carrie Fisher, Princess Leia herself.

12/14: Wonder

Based on the bestseller, this movie tells the story of a young boy born with facial differences who starts fifth grade in a mainstream school for the first time in his life. We see how his family and classmates relate to a boy so different from the other children. A very inspiring and heart-warming story, perfect for the holiday season! Young August is played by Jacob Tremblay, and his parents by Julia Roberts and Owen Wilson.

12/28: The Greatest Showman

Full of music and singing comes the glamorous story of P.T. Barnum and the birth of show business. Inspired by true events, we see Barnum's disappointment and his rise to fame, putting excluded and strange people into the spotlight, because "no one ever made a difference by being like everybody else". We already know that Hugh Jackman and Zac Efron can sing and the rest of the cast include Rebecca Ferguson, Zendaya and Michelle Williams.

12/28: Pitch Perfect 3

"What's up Pitches?" Get ready for some acapella one last time! The now separated and working girl Barden Bellas really miss each other and the singing, so they reunite for a competition at an overseas USO tour. Well, count us in! The music and singing, I am sure, will be in the same pitch with wonderful actor/singers returning as Anna Kendrick, Hailee Steinfeld, Brittany Snow, Anna Camp and of course the one and only Rebel Wilson.
