

This month we were poking around in the beauty bag of a charming Brazilian girl, Juliana, who recently obtained a degree in veterinary.

V: What is your morning skin care beauty routine?

J: First I wash my face with cold water, then I use La Roche-Posay Effaclar Gel Cleanser for oily skin. Lastly is La Roche-Posay Anthelios Airlicium SPF 30 Gel Cream Sunscreen. After all this I start my make up.

V: What are the Beauty Products you always carry in your bag?

J: Pressed powder, lipstick, perfume.

V: Are you using DIY or drugstore face / hair masks?

J: I'm using Lush Mask of Magnaminty Face and Body Pack and I absolutely love it. My skin gets very refreshed and moisturized and it smells so good! I also love the bubblegum lip scrub before put the lipstick on. And of course a thing I love about Lush is that they don't test their products on (animals. :))

V: Do you have a favourite beauty blogger/vlogger?

J: Yes, a Brazilian blogger Nathalie Barros. I love her style and mainly because she gives amazing tips about curly hair. :)

V: Do you avoid certain ingredients in cosmetics like parabens or sulfates?

J: Yes, I try to avoid mostly parabens. And the products of the brands I use regularly like Lush and La Roche-Posay are paraben-free.

V: Do you have a make-up brand you absolutely adore?

J: I absolutely adore MAC. From foundation to lipsticks, it's a must have in my bag!
